32. Suspension

- (1) The Appointing Authority or any other Competent Authority may place an officer under suspension
 - (a) where a disciplinary proceedings against him is contemplated or is pending; or
 - (b) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial; or
 - (c) in the opinion of such Authority the employee is engaged in any activity which is prejudicial to the public order or the interest or security of the State.
- (2) Every officer who is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding 48 hours, shall be deemed to have been suspended with effect from the date of detention, by the Appointing Authority or any other Competent Authority and shall remain under suspension until further orders.
- (3) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon officer under suspension is set aside on appeal or review under these regulations and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.
- (4) Where any order imposing a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement made against an officer, is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a court of law, and the Disciplinary Authority, on a consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further enquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the officer shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the Appointing Authority from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.
- (5) Every order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this regulation may at any time be revoked by the Authority which has made or is deemed to have made the order by any Authority to which the Authority is subordinate.

33. Subsistence Allowance

(1) Every officer under suspension, shall, during the period of suspension, be paid the subsistence Allowance at the following rates, namely —

(a) where the enquiry contemplated or pending is departmental, the subsistence allowance shall for the first ninety days from the date of suspension be equal to one half of the basic salary, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which an officer would have been entitled if he were on leave with pay;

(b) if it is a case of departmental enquiry and the same gets prolonged with the officer continuing to be under suspension for the period exceeding ninety days, subsistence allowance shall for such period of excess be equal for three-fourth of such basic pay, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances:

Provided that where such enquiry is prolonged beyond a period of ninety days for reasons directly attributable to the officer, the subsistence allowance shall for the period in excess of ninety days be reduced to one-fourth of the basic pay, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowance.

(2) Every officer under suspension, in case where the enquiry is by an outside agency or where criminal proceedings are under investigation or trial, shall be entitled to, for the first one hundred and eighty days from the date of suspension, subsistence allowance equal to one-half of his basic pay, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which the officer would have been entitled if he were on leave, and if such enquiry or criminal proceedings get prolonged with the officer continuing to be under suspension, the subsistence allowance for the period of such excess shall be equal to three-fourth of the basic pay, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances:

Provided that where such enquiry or criminal proceedings get prolonged beyond the period of one hundred and eighty days, for reasons directly attributable to the officer, the subsistence allowance shall be reduced to one-fourth of such basic pay, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowance.

(3) If an officer is arrested by the police on a criminal charge and bail is not granted no subsistence allowance is payable:

Provided that on grant of bail later, if the Competent Authority decides to continue the suspension, the officer shall be entitled to subsistence allowance from the date of the granting of bail.

- (4) The payment of subsistence allowance under these regulations is subject to a written declaration by the officer concerned that he is / was not engaged in other employment, business, profession or vocation during the period of suspension and the payment of the subsistence allowance shall be subject to the officer concerned not taking any employment during the period of suspension.

34. Treatment of the period of suspension

- (1) When the suspension of an officer is held to be unjustified or not wholly justified, or when an employee who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated, by the Disciplinary, Appellate or Reviewing Authority, as the case may be, whose decision shall be final, such Authority may grant to him for the period of his absence from duty —
- (a) if he is honourably acquitted, the full pay and allowance to which he would have been entitled to if he had not been dismissed, removed or suspended less the subsistence allowance granted;
- (b) in any other case, such proportion of pay and allowance as the Disciplinary, Appellate or Reviewing Authority may specify
- (2) In a case falling under clause (a) of sub-regulation (1), the period of absence from duty will be treated as period spent on duty, and in a case falling under clause (b), the period of absence will not be treated as a period spent on duty unless the Disciplinary, Appellate or Reviewing Authority, as the case may be, whose decision shall be final, so directs.

35. Penalties

The following penalties may be imposed on an officer as hereinafter provided, or misconduct committed by him, or for any other good and sufficient reasons namely:

36. Disciplinary Authority

The Disciplinary Authority, which shall be the Appointing Authority or any Authority higher than it, may impose any of the penalties on the officer as specified in regulations 35.

37. Procedure for imposing minor penalties

- (1) Where it is proposed to impose any of the minor penalties specified in clause (1) of regulations 35, the officer concerned shall be informed in writing of the allegations and the charges of misconduct or misbehaviour against him and where his past service is also relied upon a copy of his past service record as well be given an opportunity to submit his written statement of defence within the specified period not exceeding fifteen days and the defence statement, if any, submitted by the officer, shall be taken into consideration by the Disciplinary Authority before passing orders.
- (2) The record of proceedings shall include —
 - (a) a copy of the statement of imputations of misconduct or misbehaviour delivered to the officer;
 - (b) his defence statement, if any; and
 - (c) the orders of the Disciplinary Authority together with the reasons thereof.
 - (d) past service record wherever the same is relied upon.

38. Procedure for imposing major penalties

- (1) No order imposing any of the major penalties specified in the clause (2) of regulation 35 shall be made except after an enquiry is held in accordance with this regulation.
- (2) Whenever the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that there are ground for enquiring into the truth of any allegations and charges of misconduct or misbehaviour against an officer, it may itself enquire into or appoint any other person as it deems fit (hereinafter called the Enquiring Authority) to enquire into the truth thereof.
- (3) A chargesheet stating the allegations and charges shall be given to the officer concerned and shall be given an opportunity to explain in writing within the period specified. If no explanation or reply is received from the officer concerned within the specified period, it shall be presumed that employee has accepted the charges.
- (4) If the allegations of the charges are denied by the office, the enquiry may be held by the Disciplinary Authority itself, or by any other person appointed as the Enquiring Authority.
- (5) On receipt of the written statement of the officer, or if no such statement is received within the time specified an enquiry may be held Disciplinary Authority itself, or by any other person appointed as an Enquiring Authority under sub-regulation (2):

Provided that it may be necessary to hold an enquiry in respect of the charges admitted by the officer in his written statement, the Disciplinary Authority shall, however, record its findings on each such charge.

- (6) Where the Disciplinary Authority itself enquires or appoints an Enquiring Authority for holding an enquiry it may, by an order, appoint a person to be known as the "Presenting Officer" to present the case in support of the charges.
- (7) The officer may take the assistance of any other officer (who is not a co-officer or who has not on hand any other disciplinary proceedings or against whom there is no other disciplinary proceedings or criminal proceedings) working in the same department or the regional office in the same town as the case may be, but may not engage a legal practitioner for the purpose.
- (8) On the date fixed by the Enquiring Authority, the officer shall appear before that Authority at the time, place and date specified in the notice, when the Enquiring Authority shall ask the officer whether he pleads guilty or has any defence to make and if he pleads guilty to any of the charges, the Enquiring Authority shall record the plea, sign the record and obtain the signature of the concerned thereon and return a finding of guilt in respect of those charges to which the officer concerned pleads guilty.

- (9) If the officer does not plead guilty, the Enquiry Authority shall adjourn the case to a later date not exceeding fifteen days.
- (10) The officer shall, while submitting a list of documents or witness, explain in writing the relevance of the same and the Enquiring Authority is satisfied that the documents or witness are not relevant to the charges under enquiry, the Enquiring Authority shall not permit the production of documents or examination of the witnesses. The Enquiring Authority will briefly report his reasons for disallowing the production of documents or examination of witnesses.
- (11) The production of documents which will be against the public interest or the interest of the institution shall not be permitted.
- (12) (a) On the date fixed for the enquiry, the oral and documentary evidence by which the charge is sought to be proved shall be produced by or on behalf of the Disciplinary Authority and the witnesses shall be examined by or on behalf of the Presenting Officer and may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the Officer.
- (b) The Presenting Officer shall be entitled to re-examine the witness on any points on which they have cross-examined, but not on a new matter, without the leave of the Enquiry Authority.
- (c) The Enquiring Authority may also put such questions to the witness as it thinks fit.
- (13) The Enquiring Authority may, as its discretion, allow the Presenting Officer to produce evidence not included in the charge-sheet or may itself call for new evidence or recall or re-examine any witness and in every such case the officer shall be given opportunity to inspect the documentary evidence, if any, before it is taken on record, or as the case may be, to cross-examine the witness, who has been so summoned.
- (14) (a) When the Disciplinary Authority has presented the evidence, the officer may be required to state his defence, orally.
- (b) The defence made orally shall be recorded and the officer shall be required to sign the record.
- (c) A copy of the statement of defence filed or recorded shall be given to the Presenting Officer, if any, appointed.
- (15) (a) The evidence on behalf of the officer shall then be produced and in doing so, the officer may examine himself in his own behalf if he so prefers.
- (b) The witness, if any, produced by the Officer shall then be examined and shall be liable to cross-examination, re-examination and examination by the Enquiring Authority in the same manner as applicable in relation to the witness for the Disciplinary Authority.

- (16) The Enquiring Authority may, after the officer closes his case, and shall, if the officer has not examined himself, generally question him on the circumstances appearing against him in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the officer to offer his explanation on any such circumstance appearing in the evidence against him.
- (17) The Enquiring Authority may, after completion of the evidence, hear the Presenting Officer, if any, appointed, and the employee, or permit them to file written briefs of their respective cases, if they so desire.
- (18) If the officer does not submit the written statement of defence referred to in sub-regulation (4) on or before date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person, or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of the regulations, the Enquiring Authority may hold the enquiry ex-parte.
- (19) Whenever any Enquiring Authority, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an enquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another Enquiring Authority which has, and which exercises, such jurisdiction, the Enquiring Authority so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor, or partly recorded by his predecessor and partly by itself:
Provided that if the succeeding Enquiring Authority is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses whose evidence has already been recorded is necessary in the interests of justice, it may recall, examine, cross-examine and re-examine and such witnesses.
- (20) After the conclusion of the enquiry, a report shall be prepared and submitted to the Disciplinary Authority.
- (21) The Disciplinary Authority or the Enquiring Authority as the case may be shall complete the proceedings, as far as be, within three months from the date of issue of the chargesheet.

39. Action on the enquiry report

- (1) The Disciplinary Authority having regard to the findings on all or any of the charges and the past service record, after giving the concerned employee a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed, make an order imposing penalty.
- (2) If the Disciplinary Authority, having regard to its findings on all or any of the charges, is of the opinion that the same has not been made out, it may pass an order exonerating the officer concerned.
- (3) The Disciplinary Authority, shall if it disagrees with the findings of the Enquiring Authority on any of the charges, record its reasons for such disagreement and record its own findings on such charge, to the effect that the evidence on record is sufficient for the purpose, and make an order imposing any minor penalty and if the same is not felt adequate under the circumstances, proceed under sub-regulation (4).

- (4) The Disciplinary Authority, if it not itself the Enquiring Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, remit the case to the Enquiring Authority for fresh or further enquiring and report thereon, and the Enquiring Authority shall thereupon proceed to hold further enquiry, as far as may be, according to regulation 38.

40. Communication of orders *

Every order made by the Disciplinary Authority after enquiring under regulation 37 or regulation 38 shall be communicated to the officer concerned, who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of enquiry, if any.

41. Common Proceedings.

Where two or more officers or an officer and other employees together are involved in any case of misconduct, the Authority competent to impose a major penalty on all such persons, may make an order directing that the disciplinary proceedings against all of them may be taken in common proceedings and that Authority may function as the Disciplinary Authority for the purpose of such common proceeding.

42. Special procedure in certain cases

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Chapter, the Disciplinary Authority may impose any of the penalties specified in regulation 35 (2) in any of the following circumstances :

- (i) on the strength of facts or conclusions arrived at after a judicial trial or where the officer has been convicted on a criminal charge; or
- (ii) where the Disciplinary Authority is satisfied for reasons to be recorded in writing that it is not reasonably practicable to hold an enquiry in the manner provided in these regulations: or
- (iii) where in the interest of the security of the National Dairy Development Board or the State, it is not expedient to continue the officer in the service.

43. Officers on deputation from the Central Government or the State Government, Co-operatives etc.

- (1) Where an order of suspension is made or a disciplinary proceedings is taken against an officer who is a Government servant on deputation to the NDDB or an officer who is on deputation from any public sector undertaking, or a co-operative Union or Federation, the Authority lending his services (hereinafter referred to as "Controlling Authority") shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension, or the commencement of the disciplinary proceeding, as the case may be.

* For amendments please see Annexure – III.

- (2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceedings taken against the officer, if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the minor penalties should be imposed on him, it may pass such orders on the case as it may deem fit after consultation with the Controlling Authority.
- (3) Where an officer submits an appeal against an order imposing a minor penalty on him under these regulations, it will be disposed of after consultation with the Controlling Authority.
- (4) In all cases where the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the major penalties should be imposed on him, it should place his services at the disposal of the Controlling Authority and transit to it the proceedings of the enquiry for such action as it may deem fit.
- (5) In case there is a difference of opinion between the NDDB and the Controlling Authority, the services of the officer shall be placed at the disposal of the Controlling Authority, and the proceedings of the case shall be transmitted to that Authority for such action as it may deem fit.

44. Appeal

- (1) An appeal over any decision of the Disciplinary Authority, imposing penalty, under regulation 37 and 38 or regulation 42 may be made to the Chairman and if the decision is that to the Chairman, to the Board.
- (2) Every appeal shall be preferred within one month from the date of communication of the order appealed against and shall be addressed to the Appellate Authority and submitted to the Authority whose order is appealed against. [*]
- (3) The Authority whose order is appealed against shall forward the appeal, together with its comments and the records of the case, to the Appellate Authority within fifteen days of receipt of the appeal.
- (4) The Appellate Authority shall consider whether the findings are justified or whether the penalty is excessive or inadequate and pass appropriate orders, within ninety days of the date of appeal, confirming, enhancing, reducing or setting aside the penalty, or remitting the case of the Authority which imposed the penalty or to any other Authority with such direction as it may deem fit.
- (5) Whether the Appellate Authority proposes to impose a major penalty specified in regulation 35(2).
 - (a) in case an enquiry as provided in regulation 35(2) has not already been held, the Appellate Authority shall direct that such enquiry be held and after considering the record of enquiry pass such orders as it may deem proper.

* For amendments please see Annexure – III.

- (b) in case an enquiry as provided in regulation 35(2) has already been held, the Appellate Authority shall give a show cause notice to the officer as to why the enhanced penalty should not be imposed on him, and pass a final order after taking into consideration the representation, if any submitted by the officer.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, for the period for which the Board has not been constituted in accordance with the section 8 of the Act, the orders made by the Chairman shall be final.  For regulation 44 (a), (b), & (c) please see Annexure – III.

45. Review

Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, the Board may, on its own motion or otherwise, call for the records of any case relating to disciplinary proceedings within one hundred and eighty days of the date on which the final order is made, and [*]

- (a) confirm, modify or set aside the order;
- (b) impose any penalty or set aside, reduce, confirm or enhance the penalty imposed by the order ;
- (c) remit the case to the Authority which made order or to any other Authority directing such further action or enquiry as it considers proper in the circumstances of the case ; or
- (d) pass such other order as it may deem fit :

Provided that in every case where the Board proposes to enhance the penalty, and such enhanced penalty is a major penalty specified in regulation 35(2).

- (i) in a case where the enquiry as provided in the regulation has not been held, the Board shall direct the such enquiry be held, and after considering the record of the enquiry, pass such orders as it may deem fit proper;
- (ii) in a case where the enquiry has already been held in accordance with the provisions of regulation 37, the Board shall give show cause notice to the officer as to why the enhanced penalty should not be imposed upon him, and pass orders after considering the representation, if any, submitted by the officer.

46. Effect of criminal proceedings

- (1) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that the pendency of any criminal proceedings, by way of investigation or otherwise, against an officer in relation to any conduct, shall not be a bar to the commencement or continuation of disciplinary action against the officer even in respect of that conduct.

* For amendments please see Annexure – III.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, where an officer is convicted of a criminal offence involving moral turpitude or where the conviction results in imprisonment of the officer, his services may be terminated by the Competent Authority on that very ground.
- (3) Every officer who is involved or charged with criminal offence, and as a result thereof has to be absent from duty, shall not be entitled to pay and allowances for the period of such absence.

47. Services of order, notice etc

- (1) An officer shall be deemed to have been given proper written notice by the NDDB, if given in any of the following manners.
 - (i) by handing to him written communication anywhere on the NDDB premises ;
 - (ii) by sending the communication to him by registered post on the last known address in NDDB's records.
- (2) An acknowledgement of receipt from the last known address of the registered post with acknowledgement will be considered as sufficient and personal service of a communication for the purpose of these regulations.
- (3) Where any communication is required to be served on an officer it shall be sufficient service, in the case of refusal by the officer to accept the same, if he is told verbally the substance of the matter in presence of any two persons, other than the person serving the communication and if such communication relates to an enquiry and the officer so intimated fails to be present, the enquiry may be concluded ex-parte .

48. Power to relax time-limit and to condone delay

Save as otherwise expressly provided in these regulations, the authority competent under these regulations to make any order may, for good and sufficient reasons or if sufficient cause is shown, extend the time specified in these regulations for anything required to be done under these regulations or condone any delay.

49. Interpretation regarding common proceedings

Where common proceedings have been held under this Chapter, in relation to any officer and other employee, the provisions thereof shall mutatis mutandis apply as if for the word "officer" the words "officer or other employees" has been substituted.

50. Repeal and Savings

- (1) Save as provided herein, every rule, regulations or order or any matter applicable to the officers as defined in these regulations shall cease to be in force in respect of matters included herein.
- (2) Any act or omission which, before the commencement of these regulations, was a Misconduct under the provisions which have ceased to have effect by virtue of sub-regulation (1) shall be deemed to be a Misconduct under these regulations and action may be taken in respect thereof.
- (3) Every departmental proceeding commenced or initiated by the Management or appeal by an officer which is pending at the commencement of these regulations, shall be proceeded with and orders passed thereon in accordance with these regulations and the disciplinary, enquiry or appellate authorities shall be deemed to have been appointed under these regulations.
- (4) Nothing in these regulations shall be constructed as depriving any officer to whom these regulations apply, of any right of appeal which has accrued to him under any provision which has ceased to be in force by virtue of these regulations and he may appeal in respect thereof in accordance with the provisions contained in these regulations.
- (5) Nothing contained in these regulations shall be deemed to affect —
 - (a) the powers of the Board to make any order or to determine any matter or to give any directions or to take any action in exercise of powers conferred on it by or under the National Dairy Development Board Act, 1987 (37 of 1987) and in particular those contained in Chapter V read with Clause (k) of section 3 thereof;
 - (b) the powers of the Board to alter the terms and conditions applicable to any officer as envisaged in the provisions of the said Act;
 - (c) the powers of the Chairman under section 40 of the said Act until the constitution of the Board.
- (6) In relation to sub-regulation (4), the Board may adopt separate standards, make separate orders or give separate directions in respect of different class or category of officers.
- (7) On every matter on which the Board is required to issue any order or make any direction specifying or determining a particular subject under these regulations, every rule or order or direction or instruction as it existed immediately before the commencement of these regulations, and applicable to the concerned officer on any subject, shall mutatis mutandis continue to apply and be in force until a corresponding order is made or action taken or decision made by the Board or by the Chairman, as the case may be.

- (8) The provisions of sub-regulation (7) shall equally apply in relation to every matter on which corresponding rules and regulations have not been made under these regulations, or orders, directions or guidelines have not been issued, or on which necessary particulars covering them have been left to be made by the board or by the Chairman.
- (9) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to affect the continuance in force of the rules, regulations and orders (including all those relating to conditions of service of officers) applicable to the officers of subsidiary Unit, Pilot Project or Subsidiary Company until the Board or, as the case may be, the Concerned Authority of the respective organisation, otherwise decides.

51. Relaxation under special circumstances.

The Chairman may, where he is satisfied that the application of any regulation would cause undue hardship, having regard to the circumstances of any particular case, by order exempt any officer or class officers from the application of any particular regulation or direct that the regulation shall apply in such modified forms as he may determine.

52. Interpretation

- (1) In case of any divergence between the Hindi version of these regulations and the English version thereof, the provision in the English text shall prevail.
- (2) If any question of interpretation or doubts arises in relation to these regulations, the matter shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision thereon shall be final and binding.
